

Imagine you are living away from home. What meal could you have that would remind you of living at home? Draw it on the plate, then annotate your plate to explain why these foods are important to you.

