

Hello Class 4!

You have all worked so hard this week! I am so proud of all of you!

Today I would like you to think of all the feelings Michael will face before he starts his adventure at sea with his family.

Can you make a list of his feelings and explain why he will be feeling this way?

Challenge:

Can you write some of his feelings into direct speech using the correct punctuation?

Example:

"I am petrified! I have no idea what I will encounter," Michael explained.
