

Creating Nouns Using -ship Suffix

This week, we are going to look at adding the suffix -ship to root words to create nouns.

Let's start by seeing how many nouns you can think of that end in the suffix -ship...

For example:
member + ship = membership

Henry, who had worked as a carpenter for 40 years, always received positive comments about the fine craftsmanship of his furniture.

Mr Barnes had organised a citizenship lesson for class 12, which he hoped would stop some of his pupils from continually falling out.

Chadcaster United, who were on the verge of bankruptcy, were relieved to have secured a new sponsorship deal with a local business.

Karen, who had always dreamt of being a bricklayer, was accepted on an apprenticeship at a local building firm.

The mischievous twins worked in partnership to tidy their bedroom, which made their mum almost faint in disbelief.
