

Homophones and Near Homophones

This week, we going to look at some more tricky homophones and near homophones.

Can you remember what homophones are?

Homophones (or near homophones) are words that sound the same but have different spellings and meanings.

Can you spot the pair of homophones in this sentence?

It was the best
film he had ever
seen; the battle
scene was phenomenal!

Can you spot the pair of homophones in this sentence?

Abbie flew
through the air
to try and block
the ball before
her opponent
threw it into
the net!

To work out your new spelling words, which are all pairs of homophones or near homophones, I am going to give you pairs of definitions.

You will need to work with a partner to figure both words out. Think hard because some of these are very tricky!
