How Can We Avoid Repetition?

Repetition is when something that is said or written is used over and over again, for example:

Gary ate supper when Gary got home. Gary enjoyed the food.

After its first use, instead of repeating 'Gary', we could replace further uses with pronouns to avoid repetition, such as:

Gary ate his supper when he got home. He enjoyed the food.

We can also replace the noun 'supper' with another noun which means the same thing (or simply use 'it').

Avoid the Repetition!

Read the following passage of text. How many pronouns and alternative nouns can you use to stop this story from being repetitive? Don't take out so many nouns that the text no longer makes sense.

Keenan took his dogs, Max and Suki, to the local park. Keenan took Max and Suki off the lead at the local park and Max ran forward. Keenan followed Max so Max ran faster and Keenan could not keep up with Max. Eventually, Max stopped and Max had a lie down on the floor. Keenan stroked Max. Keenan and Suki lay next to Max so Keenan and Suki could recover.
